Prepare for a Weekend of Insanity!

Fantasy Flight Games is proud to present Arkham Nights, a weekend-long event devoted to gaming based on the horror fiction of famed author H.P. Lovecraft. At Arkham Nights you can immerse yourself in our Lovecraft-themed games: Arkham Horror, Call of Cthulhu: The Card Game, and our upcoming game Mansions of Madness. Arkham Nights will be filled with exciting events and seminars, special "Play with the Designer" events, scenarios, and tournaments, all described below. In addition to these special events, there will also be lots of "Learn to Play" events for Call of Cthulhu: The Card Game and Arkham Horror, as well as casual gaming with your fellow Lovecraft fans.

Fantasy Flight Games welcomes you to the Event Center and to Arkham Nights!

Call of Cthulhu: The Card Game™

Arkham Horror

Mansions of Madness

2 Hours to Save the World (2 hours)

What would you do if you only had two hours to save the world? Find out through our weekend-long Arkham Horror events. In these special scenarios, you will be put on a crash course through Arkham Horror and its expansions, trying to close the gates or defeat the Great Old One as fast as you can. The Ancient One stirs - will you and the other investigators defeat it before the clock runs out? We will also be posting the scores for each event all weekend long. Can your team save Arkham and get the highest score?

Each time slot will feature Arkham Horror plus one of its expansions, with space for up to five investigators. Runs all weekend-long.

Streets of Insanity (2 hours)

Sometimes the unlikeliest of heroes are chosen for the greatest challenges. In this weekend-long competition, we will pit Sister Mary, Dexter Drake, Gloria Goldberg, and Vincent Lee against everything the cosmic hordes can throw at them, from Arkham to Innsmouth. Can this team survive and even win out against nearly impossible odds and a lunatic time limit? Find out! The highest scoring teams will win a special prize.

Each time slot will feature Arkham Horror with all of its expansions, with space for four investigators. Runs all Saturday.

To the Barricades! (6 hours)

Join us for a massive assault on the unstable gates of Arkham in this wild multiplayer event for Arkham Horror. In this event, the danger is so huge that we are shoving aside the eight-player limit and putting as many investigators as we can on the job to save Arkham and its neighboring cities from total destruction. Many heroes will rise, if only to remember the many martyrs.

Friday 6:00pm and Sunday 11:00am

Enemies, Old and New (4 hours)

Introducing two exclusive new Great Old Ones to the streets of Arkham: the never-before-seen Daoloth and a bigger, meaner Cthulhu. Old strategies will have to be adjusted in the face of these two new enemies. Play the Arkham Nights exclusive Great Old Ones for the first time!

Friday 6:00pm, Sunday 10:00am and 2:00pm

Tour the Mansions of Madness (2 hours)

Win a chance to be among the first players in the world to enjoy our upcoming game, Mansions of Madness by Corey Konieczka (Battlestar Galactica, Runewars). Contend against the Keeper as you traverse a haunted house filled with puzzles, traps, and monsters in a cinematic, scenario-driven board game.
Slots for Mansions of Madness will be randomly filled from a lottery of pre-registered attendees.
Friday 8:00pm and 10:00pm, Saturday 2:00pm, 4:00pm, and 6:00pm, Sunday 2:00pm and 4:00pm

Crash Course in Cthulhu (Call of Cthulhu RPG) (4 hours)

Test your sanity and play an exclusive Call of Cthulhu: The Roleplaying Game adventure with Jay Little, co-designer of Warhammer Fantasy Roleplay, and Call of Cthulhu fan. In "Crash Course in Cthulhu", a student is found dead of suspicious causes on the campus of Miskatonic University and a group of paranormal investigators must find out more...
Saturday 1:00pm and 6:00pm. Seats for 5 players per session. If necessary, slots will be filled by lottery.

Cthulhu Costume Contest (1 hour)

Dress up as your favorite investigator or monster and strut your stuff at our Arkham Nights Costume Contest. The winners of the contest will win trophies, have their photos posted on our website, and may win the opportunity to appear in a future FFG Lovecraftian release.
Show us your best Gun Moll or Shoggoth at 7:00pm on Saturday!

Play with the Designer (varies)

Play Arkham Horror, Call of Cthulhu, and Mansions of Madness with the design team behind your favorite Lovecraftian games: Kevin Wilson, James Hata, Corey Konieczka, and special guest Richard Launius.
